PART III ALPHABETICAL LIST OF BENEFICES

NOTE.—An attempt has been made to simplify reference to this list, by inserting the names of the benefices in their natural order. Thus the Vicarage of St. Saviour's, Aberdeen Park, N., will be found under "A," rather than under Islington, of which parish it forms a part. It is hoped that this may be useful. For information as to the value of the benefice, population, etc., see List of Clergy in Part II.

G.B.C.W. following the name of an incumbent indicates that the patronage of the living is in the hands of the Governing Body of the Church in Wales; four appointments out of seven by the Diocesan Patronage Board, two by the Bishop of the Diocese and one by the Provincial Patronage Board.

THE CHURCH UNION

The aim of the Church Union is to uphold the doctrine and discipline of the Church; to extend the knowledge of Catholic faith and practice at home and beyond the seas; and so to bring every one to worship the Lord Christ as Saviour and King.

The plain duty of every Churchman who desires that the Church should be strong and united, and that the blessings of the Catholic Religion should be shared by his fellow men, is to support the Union.

IS YOUR CHURCH HEATING REALLY SATISFACTORY

THE ONLY PRACTICAL WAY is to instal the MODERN system that has been specially designed to heat Churches, Halls, etc., SCIENTIFICALLY—the British McCLARY system—that has proved such a wonderful success in ST. GEORGE'S CHAPEL, WINDSOR CASTLE, and in hundreds of other Churches, large and small.

McCLARY CHURCH HEATING HAS PROVED ITSELF SUPREME

It has NO PIPES or RADIATORS—which means no ugliness and nothing to give trouble. Its heat is healthy—not tiring or stuffy—it completely banishes DRAUGHTS.

Its single economical fire fills every corner of the largest Church with a delightful "Summer's day" warmth.

Send a p.c. to-day for Free Catalogue C.H. with full particulars, photographs etc. It places you under no obligation and may prove the first step towards the permanent solution of your Church Heating Problems.

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

(School of Divinity in the University of London)

Dean—REV. RICHARD HANSON, M.A., B.D.

Theological Staff—THE DEAN, PROFESSORS HARDMAN, HOOKE, JENKINS, OESTERLEY, RELTON AND DEARMER.

Lecturers—DR. BEVAN. DR. SMITH, DR. HOLLIS, MR. TASKER, MR. DAMS.

THE Theological Department of King's College is a School of Theology in the University of London, and a place of preparation of Candidates for Holy Orders. Some of the Students read for the B.D. Degrees of the University and the Associateship of the College also, others for the Associateship alone. Nearly all the Bishops accept the Associateship as sufficient academic qualification. The usual course is for three years; evening study for three years can be substituted for the first two of the day-time course. There are 250 Day Students and 75 in the evening, besides upwards of 20 taking advanced work. Women students are admitted to the Theological Faculty to read for the B.D. or the Lambeth Diploma (S.Th.). Tutor to women students of Theology: MISS E. W. HIPPLEY, S.Th. The College possesses a Hostel for 75 Students and it is desirable, though not compulsory, that a part of the time should be spent in the Hostel.

For all information as to the Theological Department application should be made to the DEAN; and for the other Departments of the College to the SECRETARY, King's College, Strand, W.C.2.

THE CREMATION SOCIETY

Founded in 1874 by the late Sir Henry Thompson, Bart., to promote a more Sanitary, Reverent and Inexpensive Method of Disposing of the Dead.

PURIFICATION BY FIRE is the most sanitary form of disposal and one that does not shock the sense of reverence.

THE BISHOP OF ROCHESTER in 1913, in his charge to the clergy of his diocese, made the following observations on this subject:—"The rule which excludes from Westminster Abbey all interments but those of cremated ashes indicates that our cathedrals and our churches may, like our closed churchyards, once more become the resting place of our sacred Dead under the very Shadow of the Church."

PHAROS

A new quarterly Cremation Magazine (32 pages) containing articles, illustrations, statistics, news items, foreign information, etc. Articles by eminent Churchmen will be included from time to time.

FOUNDED ON PRAYER.—One looks back to view the progress of this old Society, which for over 90 years has survived on prayer. Countless incidents in its history prove the value of prayer. Outlaw and witch-doctor, Martin leading his people across the pampas, sees in the distance the signs of a tropical storm, and knows that in its trail follow death and destruction. Then—he stands at the head of his people and cries ‘O God of the whiteman, if Thou really be God, defend my people from this storm.’ God hears that prayer, the winds change, the storm passes in another direction, The beginning of Martin’s conversion. God moves in a mysterious way, and He has, through difficulty and perplexity, led on this wonderful work. Please help in its extension.
